Call to action!

Yam from Here: Migration and the Making of the Black Country is a multi-year arts and heritage project funded by Heritage Lottery exploring the identity of the region.

We are looking for communities and partners to engage in our free arts workshops.

Our workshops are led by local artists who utilise the mediums of painting, textiles, photography, and performance to explore questions of home, journey, and community in the Black Country.

We would like to work with you!

Our audiences include:

Community groups and organisations interested in local arts, heritage, and history.

CIC's working with first-generation migrants and community groups and organisations interested in stories of migration.

We can organise venues in your borough through partners or come directly to you! We will organise the workshop for free.

You don't need to bring anything, just yourselves and your community.

Email: Piotr.kardynal@ewacic.com or Luccadivirgilio@ewacic.com to register interest!

New Young People's Artwork Unveiled at Sandwell Valley Crematorium Courtyard

The unveiling event, and as part of Youth Work Week, brought together members of the Council's Cabinet, youth workers, artists, and the young people themselves to celebrate the transformation of the once-plain courtyard into a vibrant and welcoming space.

The artwork was created by young people from Coneygre Arts Centre, supported by Sandwell Youth Service and local artist Roots 0121, with funding from the Holiday Activities and Food (HAF) programme.

Over two days, the group worked collaboratively to design and produce a piece that reflects the sensitivity of the crematorium setting while adding warmth and creativity to the visitor experience.

SOMETHING TO CELEBRATE!

Last month, Spectra's Lantern Celebration lit up the pathways at Midland Metropolitan University Hospital with a parade of cheerful faces, glowing lanterns and the rippling sound of a gong. Tyrone, who has been on our shadow programme, took the lead in designing the event, 'Light Garden', which involved members of the hospital community, Spectra's Community Company and SAFS.

Thank you to everyone who took part as we celebrated the autumn night, and to Andy Angell from Aum Tree Yoga for the relaxing sonic bath.
